BARCELONA – Barcelona were trailing by 4 goals in the first leg against PSG. No one thought Barcelona could pull it back. However they proved us wrong on Tuesday where they made history.

In the first match against PSG, Barcelona were all over the place. They weren't playing like the usual Barcelona, letting in four goals. The game ended 4-0 to PSG. The players and fans had their heads in their hands. It was a terrible night for Barcelona and it's supporters.

“I was extremely disappointed. I expected better from them since they're known as one of the best teams in the world. I feel like it was a waste of my money. Hopefully they'll do better in the next match” expressed one of the Barcelona supporters.

A few weeks after the loss, Barcelona played PSG again for the second leg. This time Barcelona were playing at their prime. It was a spectacular performance. At the final whistle Barcelona came out to win 6-1 over PSG and made the overall score 6-5 which sent Barcelona to the quarter-finals and into the record books for one of the best comebacks in football history.

It was a thrilling game and both teams played well and gave it their best but in the end the best team won. It was a tight score, Barcelona only winning by one goal. Hopefully Barcelona will play as well in the quarter-finals.
